Dear Commissioner Foss,
Evidently you have been sending out an email against gays, Mix-it-up-Day, and SPLC.

Really? How dare you? You are supposedly a commissioner for ALL of us. You do not have the right to do this as a commissioner. Your beliefs belong in your church, not our government.

I was a school counselor in elementary schools. It was my job on Mix It Up Day to see that we changed around the seating in the lunchroom and changed up the playground schedule for the day.

Because of this we got to see younger kids playing with older kids, girl cliques loosing their power as they were divided up, boys talking to girls, less arguing between classes, between grades, more understanding between the genders, etc. I could go on and on. And you say this is promoting homosexuality? How completely odd, how warped, how uneducated of you.

Then you also are against the SPLC? Unbelievable! That organization keeps people safe from neo-nazis and skin-heads, and help people from being scared to speak out for freedom, our friend in Noxon included.

How on earth could you state they promote homosexuality? Perhaps it is their free-thinking you object to? their open-mindedness? their ability to take care of all people as Jesus taught us?

Re-think your email commissioner! You've gone too far!
