To the honorable Ravalli County Commission

I am writing today to voice my dissenting opinion regarding your decision to redress the standing ordinance regulating advertising signage along county roadways. I would like to know, specifically, whereat the impetus to revisit this issue arises, as I suspect it comes at the behest of local interests, rather than local residents. As a firm believer of direct democracy, I personally feel that you should not bring forward any new, nor change any existing, ordinance, regulation, or provision, unless such action is initiated by a population of your constituents. It is not your place to forward or enact any statute otherwise, as yours is merely the voice and will of the people.

Please advise me as to when you will be hearing comments on this issue, so that I may share my opinion in public.

Sincerely
