Commissioners,

I am writing to ask if you have determined any of the funding methods you spoke of at the last vote of accepting the Title X funding? Actually, I recall that Ms. Foss had stated in a like-minded meeting last year that she was going to find this funding.

It is with a great amount of trepidation that I even correspond as I expect either to hear nothing back from many of you, or worse, the reply will be of no substance. Please, prove me incorrect.

A simple statement will suffice. That being, Cynthia we have found a funding source from X. Along with that, the line item from where it is reallocated or if it is private donations, a primary contact that I can follow-up with.

Thank you for your continued commitment to this incredibly important issue.
