Dear Ravalli County Commissioners,

Mr. Jan Wisniewski has sought my representation and counsel. Jan believes that any apology to be made can only be made by him. Jan specifically stated that the statements he was to make were those of a private citizen and not as a representative of the Ravalli County Planning Board in any capacity. The County Commission has neither the legal nor moral authority to apologize for the words of a private citizen of this county. The County Commission would be well advised to remember all persons of this county are fully entitled to the First Amendment right to free speech. The County Commission should further remember any regulation or government action based on the subject matter of speech is adjudged under a strict scrutiny standard by all courts of law in the United States of America.

Sincerely,

Robert C. Myers
