Subject: Independent Examination underway, not a Special Audit.

Dear Commissioners,

Attached is the version of James Woy's Independent Examination Update No. 3 as available at <http://wac.450f.edgecastcdn.net/80450F/newstalkkgvo.com/files/2014/04/Auditor-status-report-3-27-141.pdf>.

Please note that Mr Woy at no time refers to his efforts as an audit of the Ravalli County Treasurer's office. In all correspondences that I have been able to view, Mr Woy refers to an independent examination of the Ravalli County Treasurer's office, never an audit.

If the Ravalli County Board of Commissioners is aware of any document where Mr Woy of Anderson/Zurmuehlen refers to his current activities in the Ravalli County Treasurer's office as an audit, please advise. If the public is expecting a special audit, I believe they will not receive one. The public will receive an independent examination, something different.

Given this, I think it prudent that the Ravalli County Board of Commissioners refrain from publicly referring to the efforts of Mr Woy in the Ravalli County Treasurer's office as an audit. This distinction is significant and as explained to me, has legal repercussions.

Sincerely,
Chris Hockman
