Subject: [EXTERNAL] Masks

Hello,

I urge you to require masks at all public indoor settings. This should not be optional. I'm insulted when I encounter an un-masked person inside a store, and it's time more of us started saying so. It isn't about you not being afraid of Covid-19. It's about people not respecting others, acting as if they are more important than I am, or you are, or anyone else is. Please follow science and do the right thing.

And you know this is the right thing.
