Dear Commissioners,

I had sent you an email last week in regards to the most recent decisions about mail-in voting. First off, I would like to apologize. After some time in prayer, I realized I used poor wording at the end of my email. I am in no way implying "dirty politics" in the commissioners office. I am simply not understanding the decision, when we have more than enough people that would volunteer if just asked. I do feel, that there are some, in our valley that are trying to push a narrative. And many of us feel that there is too much room for error and voter fraud when it comes to mail-in ballots. We have already been seeing it reported in the news and people being charged with this crime. I do not want to see this for our county. Again, if it is merely volunteers or voting locations, the community can help with that. I strongly urge you to reconsider.

Thank you for your time.

Sincerely,
Mrs. D. James
