Subject: [EXTERNAL] Thursday COVID-19 meeting

Gentlemen:

You are our elected leaders. Your responsibility to the citizens of Ravalli County at this moment is truly a matter of life and death. Our COVID-19 infection numbers call for leadership to protect us. You do not have the luxury to pretend that there is a debate in the facts. If you, as elected officials, follow the science, you will support the state government's mandates. Make it easier for our county businesses to require masks and social distancing. Use your "bully pulpit" to promote facts and dismiss politically inspired arguments against these facts. Empower your experts on our board of health. The health of our community depends on all of us following our medical experts. Do not fail in this, the most important task you have ever faced.
