Sirs,

As a business owner I ask you to mandate masks and social distancing. It's not fair to us to make us choose between our business and our health. We don't want or need the responsibility to ask our patrons to wear masks. We are already doing everything else we can to insure our patrons' and our staff;s safety with social distancing, no large groups, a state of the art air purifying system. Please help us out. It's just good for business if you mandate it, but we could alienate customers if we do it on our own.

Sincerely,

Susan Young
