Subject: [EXTERNAL] Complaint against TBID Kristine Komar

I need to bring it to the Commissioners attention that the Director of the TBID, Kristine Komar, became extremely unprofessional when discussing TBID renewal with my manager at Camp Sula. This is the second occurrence that I have been exposed to Kristinas' poor behavior. The first resulted in my resignation from the TBID board approximately one year ago.

During the first exchange, she called me an asshole and a sexist because I refused to accept her desire to push to double the TBID fee. My position was that we need to demonstrate good stewardship of the already robust budget the TBID has prior to doubling the budget. I had weak confidence in TBID performance then and I have zero confidence now.

The most recent exchange occurred during a phone call with my Manager on Wednesday 17 March. My manager informed Kristina that Camp Sula was not inclined to sign for renewal of the TBID. To which, Kristina became ugly once again, hurling insults at so many companies not wanting to resign and accused me, the owner, of having more properties that I'm not reporting, and that she was going to find and report them. This statement is untrue and unnecessary.

Just as I dislike waisting your time with this complaint, I and my team dislike our time waisted or the continued harassment. I ask the commissioners to take action against a TBID director operating way outside of the norms of professionalism or authority. We are all way to busy for this nonsense.

respectfully

Scott Roberts
Owner, Camp Sula
