Subject: [EXTERNAL] TBID Concerns

Dear TBID Board of Trustees,

The purpose of this email is to address concerns shared with me by a member of the Ravalli County lodging community on the proposed renewal of the tourism district. They told me of allegedly disrespectful behavior from a TBID board member when they elected not to sign on for the district's renewal.

I have no way of knowing if these allegations are true or not, but it does worry me that these concerns are even being raised. As a member property who isn't signing the district renewal, will I be subjected to retaliatory behavior?

We are all neighbors and peers who need to make certain we are leading through respectful actions, even when we have differences of opinions and/ or beliefs.

Respectfully,

David
