Aquatic Invasive Species NEWSLETTER

Watercraft Inspections

It's been hot and busy at watercraft inspection stations. Partner and FWP staff have conducted more than 52,000 inspections so far this season, with over 7,400 inspection over the 4th of July weekend alone. FWP AIS and enforcement staff also conducted night operations at the Hardin inspection station June 31 through July 3rd to obtain information on boat movement at night. Few boats were observed and most of them were local traffic. Inspection numbers for 2021 are similar to what stations observed at this time last year.
