Montana
State Fund

We're excited to invite you to the new safemt.com, Montana State Fund's expansive resource for safety topics, tips and tutorials. You'll find news, stories of real Montana businesses, educational videos and more. So whether you're on the construction site or in the classroom, you (and your employees and your co-workers) can go home safely at the end of the day.

Read more in our latest Perspectives newsletter and check out the site at safemt.com.
