Commissioners,

The meeting yesterday with Commissioner Burrows was disappointing in that the acceptance of compromise with the established norms surrounding elections and governance of our nation was accepted as a good step in the right direction. That is a fatal error in waging a genuine battle for survival.

We will once again go down in defeat by accepting a plan for a minor skirmish instead of facing the reality that this may be a final skirmish in the war for the restoration of our nation to fear only God and His judgment.

Attached, please read and contemplate the real conflict that we, as a nation, are facing. The battle for survival of a free and God honoring nation founded on the Word of God, the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, not the word of the god of Islam, the god of Abraham and the illegitimate son of Abraham, Ishmael.

Regards,
Charles
