RE: Como School National Register nomination

Ravalli County Commissioners

--	--	--	--	--

Dear Commissioners Burrows, Chilcott, and Huls:

We are pleased to inform you that Como School at the intersection of Old Darby Road and Highway 93 will be considered by the State Historic Preservation Review Board for individual listing to the National Register of Historic Places. The nomination is scheduled to be presented at Montana's Review Board's next meeting, the morning of September 29 at the Rock Creek Resort in Red Lodge. A Zoom link to the meeting will also likely be available.

The meeting agenda and nomination will be posted electronically in the near future at the State Historic Preservation Office's website on the National Register of Historic Places page under the link "State Historic Preservation Review Board Meeting." <http://mhs.mt.gov/Shpo/NationalReg/RBagenda>.

Enclosed please find a notification form regarding support or objection to this nomination. We invite your written comments, if any, on the historical, architectural and archaeological significance of this property and submit those comments to this office at least two weeks prior to the board meeting. If you have any questions, please contact me at 444-3647 or via e-mail at jboughton@mt.gov. Any comments you may have will be shared with the board. Please return any comments to:
