Dear Ravalli County Commissioners,

I understand that you have a meeting today and will be deciding about the floodplain regulations. Please help protect the Bitterroot River along with private property by keeping the current floodplain regulations. The current regulations protect private property so that the river does not end up right at an individual's doorstep, thus causing bank stabilization. The current regulations protect the river by allowing it to move where it wants through the floodplain. PLEASE do not relax these regulations!

Most Sincerely,
Leslie Nyce
