- b) Provide a copy of the subdivision covenants regarding noxious weed control, if known;
- c) Has the Homeowner Association been contacted regarding the infestation? Y N
- d) Explain the Homeowner Association's response to contacting respondent regarding the noxious weed infestation: _____

This complaint form, once signed and submitted to Ravalli County, constitutes a public record under Montana Law, and is generally open to public inspection. Upon the complainant's request, the complainant's telephone number may be withheld from public view. A copy of this complaint form may be sent to the Landowner. If the complainant believes that extraordinary circumstances compel the conclusion that complainant's right to privacy outweighs the public's right to inspect this document, the complainant may attach such legal justification, with citations to specific legal authority.

By signing this complaint, the complainant also gives permission to the Weed District to inspect any properties owned by complainant within Ravalli County.
